

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 7

Wednesday, March 12, 2014

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 3:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Bryan Fulwider of United Church of Christ of Longwood, upon invitation of Rep. Castor Dentel:

Let us pray. We call You by many names. We come to You through many traditions. Yet in our deepest heart of understanding, we trust that You are one. So we are called to find unity even in our great diversity. As we gather in this hallowed Chamber, let each legislator here know that the work set before them is truly sacred work. For each one here is called upon to work with diligence and honor on behalf of all the people of our great state. The work can, at times, be vexing, seemingly even beyond the wisdom of Solomon; the decisions that sometimes seem impossible. I pray for each of these, my sisters and brothers, an increased portion, day-by-day, of spiritual wisdom. Help them take time for thoughtful and considerate reflection of the decisions they are called upon to make. Give them the unique ability to envision a state rich in compassion and concern, for all of her citizens, and empower them to craft legislation to serve that majestic vision. Teach each one of us, again, the way of humility and grace. Open our hearts and minds to ways that we can truly serve and care for those who are most vulnerable and fragile among us. Help our ears to hear and our eyes to see those who are, too often, without voice and who are too easily invisible to us. Guide these women and men who have committed to serve, in this extraordinary way, on behalf of all of us—that they may, indeed, become repairers of the breach and restorers of streets fit to live in. Finally, this work can be exhausting of heart, mind, and soul. So when the work of the day is done, give them restful sleep. That with each dawning day, they may awaken refreshed in spirit and renewed in vigor to do well, and to do good, always. Amen.

Moment of Silence

At the request of Rep. Jones, the House observed a moment of silence in memory of Democratic Leader Perry E. Thruston, Jr.'s father, Perry E. Thurston, Sr.
